The 22nd International Display Workshops

FEATURES OF IDW '15

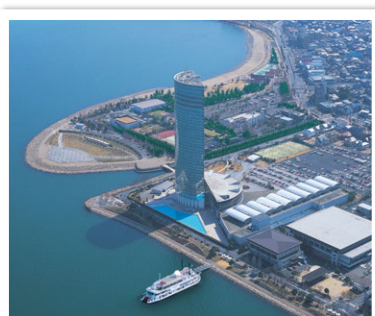

IDW '15 will integrate fourteen workshops in specialized fields playing important roles in information display activities. Each technical session will consist of oral presentations and poster presentations. The innovative demonstration session (I-DEMO) that has a space for live demonstrations will be offered for the presenters. Detailed and fruitful discussions on each specialized R&D update will be provided. The workshops should be of interest not only to researchers and engineers, but also to those who manage companies and institutions in the display community.
