IDW '18 OVERVIEW

The three-day conference will feature 475 papers, including 3 keynote addresses, 124 invited presentations, 147 oral presentations, and 201 poster presentations. Following the plenary session of keynote addresses on the Wednesday morning, presentations will begin and continue in 8 parallel oral sessions through Friday. Poster sessions, author interviews and demonstrations will enable participants to discuss topics in detail. Exhibits by universities and display industry-related businesses will also be featured from Wednesday to Friday in parallel with workshops. IDW '18 should be of interest to not only researchers and engineers, but also managers of companies and institutions in the display community.
